Description: Aoi is a cat that only know to thank the happy feeling by having been picked up from the Street and live in a house of refuge.

This beautiful black cat, with just five months, was found just down the Street, we do not know if it was abandoned or lost from somewhere, is very affectionate.

He was malnourished and dehydrated, we don't know how long it would take out there just roaming and wandering.

With affection, care and food has spare fully, has gained weight, eat very well, is very affectionate, loves you acaricies, it loves lame in arms, when you do curls up on you, never stops purring, too when he eat is purring: is a purring machine.
