Description: As every year the litters of kittens increase, the absence of control and responsability, filling the streets of towns and cities in these adorable animals that are abused, dead of starvation or congenital diseases and dirt. So this two sisters have come to our association, Oceane and Celine, with just one month of life were abandoned, dead of fear and hunger on the Street.

Now they are living together in a house of refuge. Oceane is very affectionate, is looking forward to receiving cuddles and caresses. She loves you acaricies it and have it in her arms, she always shows you their love with their purring.

Oceane gets along well with other feline companions that lives in your home. She has no problema in making friends either from others cats as people.

Oceane is ready to be adopted, needs a responsible family who follow caring it and love it for all her life. Adopt her!!
